Welcome to Your Future

Congratulations on owning your FortuneMouse. The first step towards improving the chance of success in your life.

Your FortuneMouse is the bridge to a positive, vibrant, even magical space. With its help, you can improve your chances of creating success and harmony in your life, with everyone you come into contact with, every day.

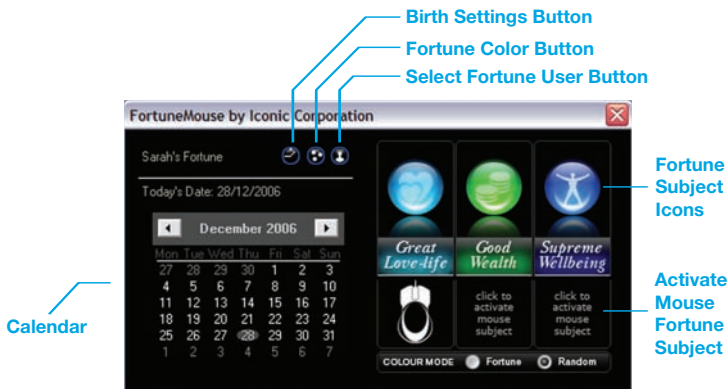

FortuneMouse has been developed after years of focused research and an analysis of the most successful systems of understanding the psyche and the traceable patterns of our lives. It is surely the most exciting development in Fortune Prediction and understanding of the Self for centuries. The heart of the FortuneMouse is a computerised Fortune Prediction System, which draws on our birthday data to tell us as much perhaps as we can know about our personal rhythms and moods on any given day. With its help we can navigate temporarily rough seas and look ahead to calmer waters and sunlit places.

Multiple theories and concepts across time – such as Astrology and Numerology, I-Ching and Biorhythms – have been critically evaluated. The essence of these theories has been harnessed in the creation of the FortuneMouse. It is designed to be personal for you, and those around you; and the results of this modern Fortune Prediction System are both unique and remarkable. FortuneMouse will provoke your daily curiosity, inviting easy access to astonishing insights about the shape and color of your daily or weekly fate.

This extraordinary tool reveals yourself to you from the date – and the hour if you know it – of your birthday. Ancient wisdoms believe this date marks our entry point into the cosmos, the map co-ordinates from which we can find our bearings throughout life. But even in the most rational and scientific of worlds, it is undeniable that our birthday is a vital part of our identity on the planet.

Greater understanding of your future can empower you to take control of your life, and help you make decisions with confidence. The FortuneMouse will also work subtly to improve the feelings of family harmony, happiness and success.

Improve Your Life & Your Chance Of Success

The FortuneMouse is designed to enhance your outlook on life and your chances of personal success. Use it wisely and frequently.

It is important to realise that a Common or Rising Fortune displayed in your FortuneMouse does not imply a bad day. In order to have a positive result you need to give more effort and consideration when planning tasks or events. As your fortune increases to a Good Fortune, your chance of a successful outcome is more likely. At the upper end of the Fortune scale you will have Great and Supreme levels of Fortune. These indicate a significant increased chance of success in your life.

If you have romantic concerns, your FortuneMouse can help you choose the best time to ask someone on a date or even pop the question. Go to your FortuneMouse and select the Love subject. Move forward through the following days to find out when your love life is more fortunate and seize the opportunity.

Your FortuneMouse may also help you improve your financial and career prospects. The Wealth Subject is specifically designed to help you decide when to close an important deal, make a career move, seize an opportunity or even buy a lottery ticket.

If you have an important interview, you can consult your FortuneMouse. When your FortuneMouse indicates a Good to Supreme Fortune, you will be more confident in the interview. When a Common or Rising Fortune is displayed, you should prepare more thoroughly. Whatever your reading for that particular day, it is always better to know your Fortune in order to increase your chance of success.

If you want to feel happier within yourself, your FortuneMouse can increase your sense of commitment to help you manage everyday challenges with inner confidence.

Color Mode Selection

Your FortuneMouse provides two color modes: Fortune and Random.
